“Yesterday’s concert at Meyerhoff Symphony Hall was no exception. Impeccable musicianship. High-voltage delivery. A standing ovation. In other words, more of what we’ve come to expect from conductor Karen Gorden.” - Arts Baltimore

“A conductor like a fish in water... When she was 16, Karen Gorden dared to dream a huge dream...Years later, it’s safe to say Gorden’s dreams have come true.” - Yellow Springs News

“An admirable and gifted conductor indeed. She possesses innate musicality; her conception of the scores she conducts is strong... [Gorden is] a conductor for any ensemble that expects to work at a high level of professionalism and that looks to make music with creativity and purpose.”
- Francis Thorne, President, American Composers Orchestra

“A very talented young conductor...[Gorden] displayed great musical imagination and true leadership qualities.” - Georg Tintner

“Who knew that classical music could be such a draw? Here is truly one conductor to keep your eye on. Go see Gorden conduct. Just go.” - culture at large
